

County History

American Vinedresser's Guide - by John James Dufour, 1826; 314 pages plus index, Dufour was one of the Swiss brothers who founded Vevay and the wine industry in the United States.

$24.00

History of Switzerland County, 1885; 390 pages, index, hb. A history of the townships, towns, villages, schools, and churches; portraits of early settlers and prominent citizens; biographies.

$42.00

Turn to the River by Carolyn Danner Beach – The result of extensive study of the Schenck family and enterprises, and the heritage left by three Swiss families, who traveled together to Indiana in 1817 and whose lives intertwined in various ways. Pb.

$7.00

Vevay Cookbook, 1901, compiled by the Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church; 146 pages including index and numerous historically interesting advertisements; pb.

$8.95

Will Henry Stevens - Life and career of modern art painter Will Henry Stevens of Vevay (1881-1949). Published by Greenville County Museum of Art. 82 pages with 52 color illustrations. pb.

$17.95

Roxy - by Edward Eggleston, written in 1878, Roxy recounts a real event, telling the story of a woman attempted to follow the dictates of society and her religion as to proper thought and behavior. 537 pages pb

$24.95

Switzerland County Interim Report – Indiana Historic Sites and Structures Inventory, 2006, published by Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana. 115 page book documents historic buildings, sites, structures, and districts significant to the history and built environment of the county. It includes many photographs of historic barns, houses, commercial buildings, cemeteries and bridges. Maps & descriptions accompany the pictures. Of special interest are the historic photographs which have been reprinted in this book. Pb.

$21.95

Memories - By Willetta Washmuth, an autobiography sharing events and changes in Switzerland County over her lifetime.

$7.50

Historic New Switzerland - Thirteen woodcuts by August Mead (1905-1983), originally published in 1932

$7.50

SC Cemetery Locator - By Ellen Kern, valuable resource revealing discoveries of once lost cemeteries in the county.

$8.95

Christmas Tour - Guide from 1995 Christmas tour of Switzerland County Churches, historic information on 18 churches

$2.00

SE IN Freedom Trails - Underground Railroad driving tours linking places and stories. Illustrated with maps and historic photographs.

$5.00

Educational Development - Early Schools & Teachers, Vevay, Indiana

$5.00

Vevay Sesquicentennial Sheet Music

$1.00

Map Reprints - from 1883 Switzerland County Atlas, townships, towns and county

$10.00

Ohio River History

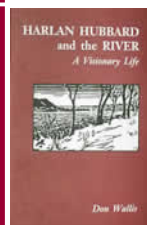

Ohio River Scenic Byway, Indiana, Images of America Series by Arcadia Publishing. 127 pages of historic photos. The byway celebrates the scenic, recreational, and historic in its architecture, winding roads, and overlooks. Pb.

$19.99

OYO, an Ohio River Anthology – Volumes I and III are available. Volume I, Movement and Place. Volume III, River Lives. Don Wallis, editor. Pb. $10.00

Payne Hollow, Life on the Fringe of Society – a new edition (1997) of a classic work (1974) by Harlan Hubbard with an after word by Don Wallis. Pb.

$8.50

Harlan Hubbard and the River, A Visionary Life – by Don Wallis, 1989. “A weaving together of Harlan’s words, from his journals and his books, travel diaries and notes, unpublished manuscripts, and memoirs .” pb. Out of Stock

Along the Ohio, Cincinnati to Louisville – Postcard History Series by Arcadia Publishing. Postcard images show many riverfront scenes, from the cities along the way to excursion steamboats, river scenery, and the river at work. Pb.

$19.99

Thrills of the Historic Ohio River – originally published in 1929, articles originally written for the Cincinnati Times-Star by Frank Y. Grayson. 280 pages, indexed, pb. $21.95

Ohio River Images, Cincinnati to Louisville in the Packet Boat Era – Images of America Series by Arcadia Publishing. This fascinating pictorial history gives readers a glimpse into the packet boat era from about 1900 to 1930 along the route from Cincinnati to Louisville.

$19.99

Belle of Louisville - by Alan Bates, a retired steamboat mate and navel architect. $8.00

McBride's River - by Alan Bates, a retired steamboat mate and navel architect. $11.95

Harley Tryon Tales - by Alan Bates, a retired steamboat mate and navel architect. $7.00

Beatty's Navy - The life and times of Capt. John L. Beatty. Salvage master, restaurateur, steamboat and river history buff. Author Barbara Huffman, presents a biographical examination of the many aspects of their dual careers. 427 pages, hb.

$26.95

The Ohio River in American History and Voyaging on Today's River ... by Captain Rick Rhodes. 300 years of river history – the French and Indian War, the American Revolution in the West, the Underground Railroad, the Steamboat Era, and 20th & 21st Century River Industries. 320 pages, pb. $29.95

Mr. Roosevelt's Steamboat - By Mary Helen Danner, c.1981. A stirring adventure story of the New Orleans, the first steamboat to travel the western rivers.

$15.95

Always a River - Souvenir Edition Newspaper 1991 $1.00

Souvenir "Life on the Ohio" River History Museum tote bag

$12.00

"Life on the Ohio" River History Museum T-shirt, assorted colors & sizes $16.00

Miscellaneous

Historic Reproductions by Wallin Forge
 A black, cylindrical tin lantern with a handle and a glass lens at the bottom.	Pierced Tin Lantern- A replica of one on display in the Historical Museum $50.00
Steamboat Cookie Cutter $10.00
 Two black, ornate candle holders with a central post and a glass chimney.	Candle Holders - handcrafted by Wallin Forge $24.00
Sconce $17.00

Music CDs by Cathy Barton & Dave Para
"Living on the River"	$16.00
"Most Perfect Harmony"	$16.00

Children's Items
Whistle	$3.75
Captain's Puzzle	$6.00
Stringamajig	$3.75